Dear Sir.

Pardon me for writing to you, but I am afraid that the report which you have received about me are untrue or grossly exaggerated.

I was so surprised and dazed when I saw you, I am afraid you thought I acknowledged being guilty of the charges a gainst me but I did not so intend. I respectfully ask therefore that you permit me to call upon you and give me a hearing. They called me a great deep to my mother who is a widow and your

Dear Sir

Pardon me for writing to you, but I am afraid that the reports which you have received about me are untrue or grossly exaggerated.

I was so surprised and dazed when I saw you, I am afraid you thought I acknowledged being guilty of the charges against me but I did not so intend. I respectfully ask therefore that you permit me to call upon you and give me a hearing. My salary is a great keep to my mother who is a widow and your in this matter may determine the whole course of my life.

Very respectfully,
Geo. B. Heilig
